

Curriculum Vitae - Niels Andersen

Present position(s):

Member of DTU Space Executive Board with special responsibility of relations to Business & Authorities–
Technical University of Denmark (DTU)

Head of Department for Innovation and Authorities at DTU Space

Education:

1983: Master in Physics/Mathematics at the University of Aarhus

1992: Ph.D. in Geodesy at the University of Copenhagen

1993 - 1995: DIEU 3 years Management education

2012 DBE – Diploma in Business Excellence, Columbia University, New York

Career:

1983 Geodetic researcher at Geodetic Institute, Ministry of Defence

1991 Head of the Section of Experimental Geodesy at the Danish Agency National Survey & Cadastre (KMS)

1992 Head of the Cartographic Department at KMS

1996 Head of the Geodetic and Cartographic Division and member of the Directing Board at KMS

2003 Chief Consultant at Danish National Space Centre (DRC)

2007 Deputy Director at DTU Space, Technical University of Denmark (DTU)

2011 Director of the Center for Polar Activities at DTU – Polar DTU

2014 Head of Department for Innovation and Public Sector at DTU Space

2014 DTU Space Executive Board, Business & Public Authorities

Affiliations:

National member of the Nordic Geodetic Commission (NKG)

Treasurer of the International Union of Geodesy and Geophysics (IUGG)

National representative in the International Association of Geodesy (IAG/IUGG)

National representative for Geodesy in the Danish Committee of IUGG, Danish Royal Academy of science

Senior member of the Danish National Continental Shelf Project regarding United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS)

Senior member of the Danish UNCLOS Delegations, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark

Senior Advisor on national delimitation and Arctic Council matters to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark

Member of the International Law Association (ILA), Space Law Committee

Chair of the IHO/IAG Advisory Board on the Law of the Sea (ABLOS)

Board member of the Fulbright Commission

Board member of Center of Defence, Space and Security (CenSec)